

Round Concrete/Timber Picnic Table

Outdoor eating is becoming a more popular social event. This isn't just an outdoor eating area, to many who use it, it's a meeting place. That's what makes this hard-wearing picnic table such an excellent, cost-effective option.

It's made from preservative treated softwood timbers from sustainable renewable sources. And has a set concrete base – this is probably why it's so popular and is an excellent product for so many public spaces such as parks, pubs, and colleges.
